

CENTRE FOR INDEPENDENT LIVING IN TORONTO (CILT)

And Community Partners invite you to MAKE YOUR VOICE AND VOTE COUNT!

A Non-Partisan Skills Development Workshop for people with disabilities, allies, and advocates on:

Date: Monday, October 15, 2018

Registration: 1:00pm-1:30pm

Workshop: 1:30pm-4:00pm

Place: 490 Sherbourne St.

(at Wellesley St. East, Apartment Bldg.)

In this workshop, we will:

- Increase your learning and tools for engaging in the upcoming Municipal Election
- Discuss issues and questions to be asked of your Mayoral/Councillor candidates. What will they do to improve services and address key issues for Torontonians with disabilities?

RSVP by Tuesday October 9, 2018. Seating is limited.

Register by Eventbrite <https://disabilityvotecounts.eventbrite.ca> or contact Robin at inquiry@cilt.ca or 416-599-2458 ext. 293

Light refreshments will be served. Attendant Services, other accommodations, and TTC Tokens will be provided upon request. CILT promotes a scent-free environment. Please let us know your dietary restrictions or any other accommodations by Tuesday October 9 at 12:00pm.

Funding support provided by Independent Living Canada, City of Toronto, and United Way Greater Toronto.

