

PARENT-TO-PARENT PROGRAM

Geneva Centre for Autism is offering a Parent-to-Parent Program to match parents of newly diagnosed children with ASD and experienced parents via telephone or email to provide support and guidance in navigating autism services

Who is eligible? Parents who recently received a diagnosis of ASD for their child OR Parents who have been involved with Geneva Centre for Autism and Autism services in Toronto for more than two (2) years

Requirements: Parents receiving and offering support will be involved for a one (1) year period

Commitment: Experienced parents offering support to a new peer MUST attend an orientation and training on November 21 – 9:00am – 12:30pm or November 29 – 5:00 – 8:30pm at 112 Merton Street, Toronto ON M4S 2Z8

Interested parents can contact the Social Work department:

intake@autism.net OR 416. 322. 7877 ext. 513 to register