<td>Draw a picture of the Canada flag. Have your child colour it and help them attach a straw to one end. Wave it around. Encourage your child to wave the flag high in the air or low to the ground.</td>
<td>RED &amp; WHITE DAY</td>
<td>Look at some Canadian money. Ask your child to group the ones that are the same. Talk about which ones are the same and which ones are different. Ask your child what they see on the money. Name the animals and pictures that you see together. Using pots and pans, make music together. If it gets too noisy go outside to celebrate. Put on some music and have a parade (march around your house).</td>
<td>Using pots and pans, make music together. If it gets too noisy go outside to celebrate. Blow up a balloon. Let the air out and encourage your child to blow the balloon up. Tie a knot in the balloon and hit it high in the air. Take turns hitting the balloon in the air. Count how long you can keep the balloon in the air.</td>
