

Getting Someone's Attention

When I want to get someone's attention...

When I have something to tell or show another person I can remember to get closer, say their name, and touch them gently.

Then I wait and listen for an answer.

I can walk towards the other person.

I can say their name...

or I can tap them gently on the shoulder.

