Puppet Show Script:
WHEN SOMEONE SAYS YOUR NAME

Note: The text in brackets and italics are stage directions for the puppets.

Appropriate Script:

(Mona is reading a book. Jerome walks in.)
JEROME: "Hi, Mona"

(Mona stops reading the book and looks up at Jerome.)
MONA: "Yes, Jerome?"

JEROME: "What book are you reading?"

MONA: "I'm reading (insert title of book you have chosen for the puppet show)."

JEROME: "Can I look at the book with you?

MONA: "Sure Jerome that would be fun!"

Inappropriate Script:

(Mona is reading a book. Jerome walks in.)

JEROME: "Hi Mona!"
(Mona keeps reading her book. She turns her back on Jerome and starts naming the objects in the book.)

JEROME: "Mona?"

(Mona keeps reading the book and then gets up and walks away from Jerome without looking at him.)

(Jerome is alone and feeling very sad.)
