

The Reason for Rules

Early Childhood Services, Community Living Toronto, 2008

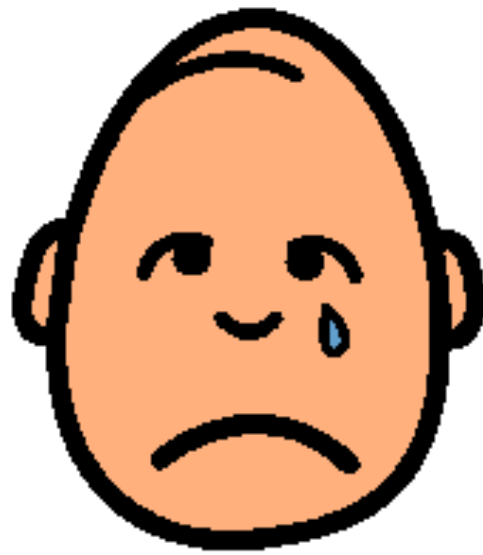

I have fun at daycare.

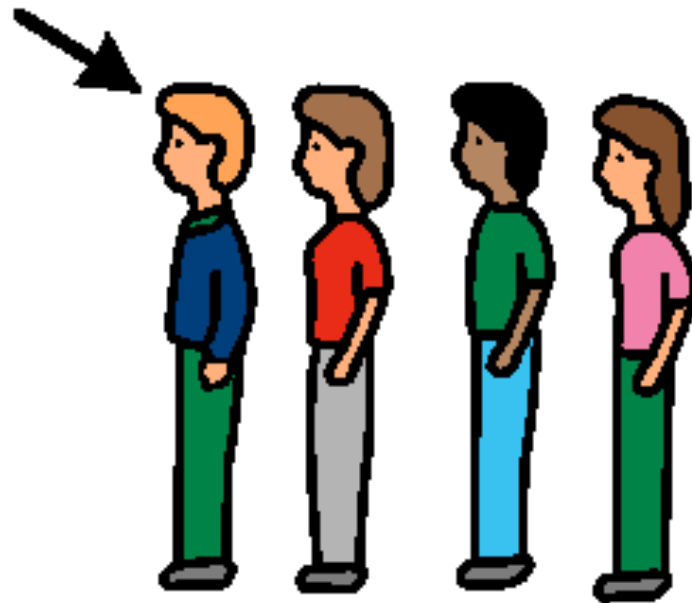

I try to listen to my teachers but sometimes I'm having so much fun that I don't want to stop what I'm doing.

One time I didn't tidy up even though everyone else was finished. By the time they waited for me to tidy up, we only had a little time to play outside.

I was very sad because I like playing outside.

Another time, everyone wanted to be first in line.
