

RACISM AFFECTS ME TOO:

LEARNING ABOUT THE IMPACTS OF ANTI-BLACK RACISM ON PEOPLE LIVING WITH A DISABILITY

Purpose

This workshop will focus on how Anti-Black Racism impacts individuals living with Intellectual/Development Disability (IDD) and Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD). Participants will engage in weekly lessons, activities, and group discussions. Our goal is to help participants will build a sense of identity, cultural and community.

For who: Self identified black individuals living with an IDD and ASD (Mild to Moderate). Participants must have access to technology and be able to engage in virtual learning.

When: June 2021 (Tuesday Evening), 7pm to 8pm

Where: Virtually through Google Meet

Registration :

Email us: racismaffectsmeto@gmail.com.
With your name and number. (Intakes will be scheduled at a later date)

Follow @Marty.lampkinspeaks for more details

Hosted By:

Alicia Gonen, M.Ed, Applied Behaviour Analysis

Marty Lampkin, RSW, MSW
Clinical Social Worker,
Professor SSW

We are offering these workshops FREE of cost to the participants.

All donations will go towards helping black adults with Intellectual/Development Disability and Autism Spectrum Disorder during these times of uncertainty. Donations (email transfer) can be sent to racismaffectsmeto@gmail.com.

Thank you for the support and we hope to continue providing this workshop for future participants