

Canada Day

Cultural Events

Connect ABILITY.ca

WHAT MAKES IT MEANINGFUL

Canada day is held on July 1 and is celebrated across the country. Many Canadians enjoy festivities such as watching firework displays, attending city attractions, and parades. It is a time to reflect on and remember our history, growth, successes, and culture.

TIME

Canada Day is held on July 1 and continues throughout the entire day. You can spend as much time as you would like to celebrate.

MATERIALS

- Optional: firework displays across the country, typically city operated (free)
- Optional: Parades (free)
- Optional: city attractions admission (free to $50.00+ per ticket)
- Optional: Parking depending on location (free to $40.00+ per day)
- Optional: Public transportation ($3.25+ per fare, depending on city)
- Optional: Celebratory accessories such as flags ($5.00+)
- Optional: Snacks to enjoy at the festivities ($5.00+)
- Optional: foldable/portable chairs ($35.00+ approx.)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Plan and decide what activities or events you want to participate in or observe such as parades and fireworks.
2. Invite your friends, family, and acquaintances.
3. Decide how you will get to the event: car, taxi/uber, public transit and plan your travel to and from the event.
4. Mark the date and time of the festivities in your calendar.
5. Send reminders to your group the day before to remind them of the festivities.
6. Dress and pack for the weather.
7. Attend and enjoy the festivities on the day of.

RESOURCES

- History of Canada Day - Canada.ca
- Canada Day events all over Ontario! - Attractions Ontario
- Canada Day in Toronto & GTA: July 1 to 4, 2022 - Fireworks, Festivals and Celebrations (todocanada.ca)

SUPPORTS NEEDED

This activity can be done individually or with a group.

OTHER THINGS TO NOTE:

Weather: Dress for the weather. The events will take place rain or shine. It is important to have raincoats and umbrellas packed with you if it could rain. If it is hot and sunny bring: a hat, water bottles, sunscreen, and umbrella for shade from the sun. Wear appropriate footwear for puddles, mud, long walks and standing.

Chairs: Bring portable chairs for sitting. Seating may not be available or may be on a first come first serve basis. You may also want to bring a picnic blanket to sit on.