

Food Truck Festival

Festivals | Social

ConnectABILITY.ca

WHAT MAKES IT MEANINGFUL

There is a great festival for foodies to hang out and try new foods! At the Food Truck Festival there are about 30-50 trucks, offering a wide variety of different foods. Not only are there lots of food, but there is also music and live performances to keep you entertained. You can attend the festival throughout the city, at well-known parks. The festival takes place in Toronto, Brampton, Burlington, and Pickering. The admission to the festival is FREE!

TIME

The festival is held during the summertime, between July and September. You can spend as much time as you would like to enjoy the festivities.

MATERIALS

- Spending money ($100-200, depending on how much you are willing to spend)
- Comfy shoes for lots of walking!
- Sunscreen ($5.00+)
- Optional: Parking funds- depending on location ($0-30)
- Optional: Public transportation ($3.25+ per fare, depending on city)
- Optional: Map

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Check to see when and which park in your city the festival will be taking place.
2. Plan and decide what date and who you would like to attend with (friends, family, or support worker).
3. Decide how you will get to and from the event: drive, taxi/uber or public transit.
4. Mark the date and time of in your calendar. This way you will not forget, and you can remind your friends.
5. On the day of the event, check the weather and dress appropriately (sunscreen, if needed).
6. Attend the event, socialize, and eat!

Food Truck Festival

RESOURCES

- Canadian Food Truck Festivals
- Google maps

SUPPORTS NEEDED

This activity can be done individually or with a group.

OTHER THINGS TO NOTE:

- You can bring a camera to document the experience.
- You can bring a folding chair in the case you to rest frequently.