

Monster Tissue Box Arts & Crafts

ConnectABILITY.ca

WHAT MAKES IT MEANINGFUL

As many of the other activities this craft promotes using things that we already have and making it into something else. Sustainable crafts can help you lead a meaningful life since you are getting creative and also contributing to the overall health of the environment.

For this activity we will reuse an old tissue box that would normally be thrown away. By giving it a second life as a cute tissue box monster with a big mouth and teeth. This activity can work on creativity and getting the individuals to get creative and think of unique ideas and what they can do to their monster to make it different and stand out,

TIME

This activity would take 30-45 minutes.
