WHAT MAKES IT MEANINGFUL

Mixing crafts with fun is a great way to live a meaningful life. It can help you get in touch with your creative side, reduce stress and make you feel better overall. Creating something that is fun and also pretty can give a sense of accomplishment. Crafting is a great way to unwind and relax, by providing a break from your daily life.

For this craft it is relatively straightforward. All you will be doing is filling water guns up with paint and shooting a piece of paper. This activity will work on hand eye coordination, and aim.

TIME

This activity would take 15-20 minutes

MATERIALS

Include any necessary or suggested materials needed for the activity.

- Water gun ($11.00)
- Water colour paints ($16.00)
- Watercolour paper ($8.00)
- Tape ($2.00)

INSTRUCTIONS

Include any instructions needed:

1. Start by filling up water guns with watercolor paints diluted with water so they are the proper consistency to shoot.
2. Next hang up your papers at a good distance from where you plan on shooting from.
3. Start shooting, using different colors to make a splatter painting.

SUPPORTS NEEDED

Getting the paint into the water guns could potentially be an issue, so assistance should be provided.

OTHER THINGS TO NOTE

Instead of using water guns you can always replace that with regular splatter painting with a brush.
