WHAT MAKES IT MEANINGFUL

A rich cultural and sensory experience celebrating hockey history. Interactive exhibits, the Stanley Cup, and hands-on games build confidence, social skills, and a sense of connection to Canadian heritage

TIME

- Recommended visit duration: 2–3 hours (typical; stay longer if desired)
- Whole-day admission: Re-entry available via hand stamp for lunch breaks, nearby attractions, or schedule flexibility

MATERIALS

- Pre-purchased or printed tickets (online purchases include discounts)
- Water, snack (purchases allowed; no outside food in exhibit areas)
- Sensory supports: noise-cancelling headphones, fidget toys, sunglasses
- Physical aids: wheelchair aids or seating cushions
- Camera or phone for photos with Stanley Cup & exhibits

INSTRUCTIONS

Plan ahead: Buy tickets online for a 10% discount and re-entry benefits

Arrive early: Aim for a weekday morning to avoid crowds

Go to The Hockey Hall of Fame

Enter via the concourse level: Use PATH or street entrance at 10 Front St W

Receive hand-stamp: Enables leaving and returning during open hours

Experience the exhibits:

- Esso Great Hall (vault, Stanley Cup)
- Interactive zones: goalie/shooting games, TSN broadcast, replica dressing room \
- TSN Theatre for 3D film “Stanley’s Game Seven”
- Photo opportunity with the Cup (free or paid professional option)

Take breaks: Rest in seating areas; staff available for assistance

Use amenities: Snack machines inside; dining options in Brookfield Place

Exit: After the visit, hand-stamp allows re-entry if returning later
