

Help plan the future of Toronto's recreation facilities and parks

Share what matters most to you and your community for recreation facilities and parks, both now and for the future.

The City of Toronto's Parkland Strategy and the Parks and Recreation Facilities Plan are 20-year plans that guide growth and investment in parkland and recreation facilities over the next 20 years.

Join the thousands of Torontonians that have provided feedback to help inform updates to these plans by taking the online survey by Sunday, September 14, 2025.

Survey details:

The survey is available in English, Bengali, Chinese, Filipino, French, Hindi, Spanish and Tamil until Sunday, September 14, 2025.
