

Interested in planning for your future?

Person-directed planning can help you to create meaningful life goals, and find community connections with the help of important people in your life.

COMPASS is a collaborative of community organizations in Toronto with expertise in person-directed planning. Using an individualized approach, skilled facilitators assist people to develop and implement a plan.

For fee-for-service information contact one of the following organizations:

Corbrook: 416-245-5565

Geneva Centre for Autism

416-322-7877 x 222 | adultservices@autism.net

Montage: 416-780-9630

These organizations provide the same service for the same fee.

