

National AccessAbility Week Educational Series

Build awareness, knowledge, and practical skills related to accessibility.

Join us for a six-part educational series in recognition of National AccessAbility Week, coordinated by George Brown Polytechnic and the City of Ottawa.

May 25 —
June 12

Open to everyone, these online sessions explore practical ways to create more inclusive and accessible environments in the workplace and beyond. Each session features expert speakers and actionable insights you can apply right away.

- Online via Zoom
- Free to attend
- Registration required for each session

Learn, engage, and help build a more accessible community.
